

AUTHORITY

The Internal Revenue Code States: Section 6020. Returns Prepared for or Executed by Secretary.

(b) EXECUTION OF RETURN BY SECRETARY

(1) AUTHORITY OF SECRETARY TO EXECUTE RETURN - If any person fails to make any return (other than a declaration of estimated tax required under section 6015) required by any internal revenue law or regulation made thereunder at the time prescribed therefor, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the Secretary shall make such return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise.

The Internal Revenue Regulations amplifys this section of the Code: Section 301.6020-1.

(b) Execution of returns - (1) In general. If any person required by any internal revenue law or by the regulations prescribed thereunder to make a return (other than a declaration of estimated tax required under section 6015 or 6016) fails to make such return at the time prescribed therefor, or makes willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the district director or other authorized internal revenue officer or employee shall make such return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise.

The authority has been delegated to revenue officers, among others (See Figure 23-2).
